DISCUSSION STARTERS

- What attributes of God do you see in this Psalm and how do they impact you and your walk with Him?
- What instructions to a believer do you see in this Psalm and how do they impact your walk with God?
- What things do you need to remember?
- What things do you need to forget?
- Why?

TODAY'S WORD – Psalm 25:1-10 (NIV 2011)

In you, LORD my God, I put my trust. I trust in you; do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me. No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame, but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause.

Show me your ways, LORD, teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Saviour, and my hope is in you all day long. Remember, LORD, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways; according to your love remember me, for you, LORD, are good.

Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in his ways. He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way. All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful toward those who keep the demands of his covenant.

E.B. HAS ENDED!!!

Don't panic. It is just the name that is ended. From now on EB (Eternal Business) will be simply called the 6pm Service. People of all ages are invited to attend.

A NEW DETOUR HAS BEGUN!

Detour, under the leadership of Emma and Mike Shaw will start up again today for 2018. This year Detour will be held on the first and third Sundays of each month. On other Sundays the Detour youth will engage with the morning services.

PRAYER MATTERS

The bible tells us to pray for our leaders. Now this does not mean only our worldly leaders. We need to pray for the leaders of this church so may we start with Richard and Jacqui. I do not think that any one of us knows how many extra hours Richard "works". How much time he gives to the church and all its needs. You know we complain when we have to go to one meeting during the week, but Richard goes to a lot more. Many times, he works willingly with those who are in despair, or need advice on how to go forward, and I guess that a lot of people will ask him "What is the will of God for me" And then he has to go away and pray for them and seek what God would have him say. Also pray for Jacqui for she is left alone many a night, yet they work so well together, each in their own field but also together for this church. Give thanks to the Lord with a grateful heart for them and ask that the blessing and safe keeping of the Lord will rest upon them both....Alida

NEXT ROSTERS PLANNING

We are now planning for the second quarter of 2018 and would appreciate if you could please inform the office of any dates you will not be available for rostered duties between 8th April and 24th June. You may do this either by replying to this email or by completing one of the forms on the office window ledge. Either way please could you let us know by 18th February. Thanks for your assistance... Sheila

FEBRUARY FUND RAISING

During February, there is an opportunity to donate towards assisting Modbury Uniting Church with their community outreach programs. The money will be used to provide food and fuel vouchers to those who call on them for help. To donate, you can use a blank envelope from the foyer table. Just write on it "Modbury UC" using the bank details on the back of the Gully Life. Thank you. (Part of TTGUC's 2018 Mission Projects)

KCO: 17-18 MARCH 2018

KCO is just around the corner. If you are interested in being an adult leader, junior leader or camper (7 years to Year 7) please see Willow for more details

LIBRARY NEWS

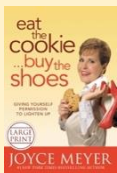

Today there are 12 “new” books in the library all donated to the church. Thanks go to all those who have passed on their books in this way...

Here I am to Worship by Adam Palmer - 30 Devotions inspired by the songs of Tim Hughes. An interesting little book. (Devotional)

The Exceptional Life by Stephen Arterburn – There are certain things which stop us from attaining the life God planned for us. Stephen Arterburn names them as Guilty, Shame, Resentment, Fear, Anger, Instant Gratification, Learned Helplessness, Isolation and Addiction. He offers a means by which these may be overcome, leading to life in all its fullness. He is the founder of New Life Ministries and has an “upbeat” approach! (Christian Life)

Eat the Cookie – Buy the Shoes by Joyce Meyer – In this book Joyce reminds us that God wants us to enjoy the lives He has given us. He wants us to celebrate His mercies, our victories. Sometimes we lose the joy and pleasure that are God given gifts. (Christian Life)

The Secret of Happiness by Billy Graham – This is the classic based on the Beatitudes. “Ancient truths that are as modern as tomorrow”. (Christian Life)

A Woman's Call to Prayer by Elizabeth George – The writer offers encouragement and practical suggestions for women seeking to establish a regular prayer habit. (Prayer)

The Confessions of a Vicar's Wife by Jane Grayshon – Not strictly a biography but humorous episodes from her role as the wife of a vicar in 1990's U.K. (Biography)

A Year in China by Jon Perrywell and Vincent Sack – Jon is a young Englishman who goes to spend a year teaching English and preaching the Gospel to Chinese students. It has been lightly fictionalised to protect those involved but is based on true experiences. This was in 2004/2005. (Biography)

Mother Teresa – Missionary of Charity by Sam Wellman - As a young girl, Mother Teresa felt called to serve as a nun in India, but in 1946 she felt another call – to live among and offer free services to Calcutta's most desperate poor. (Biography)

Amish Grace by Donald B Kraybill and Others – “The school house shooting in quiet Amish country shook the world. Then with a swiftness that also startled the world the Nickel Mines Amish forgave the killer and offered grace to his family.” (quote from text). Donald Kraybill picks up on this event and goes on to explore the lives and beliefs of the Amish. (Biography)

Annie's People by Beverly Lewis – 3 fictional tales about the Amish by this well-known writer. Based on fact. Beverly Lewis was born in Amish country.

1. The Preacher's Daughter
2. The Englisher
3. The Brethren

(Fiction)

CONGRATULATIONS!

Most library books found their way back last year, or were accounted for! However, 5 DVDs are still missing. If you have any of the following, please return them to the crate near the library. No name or phone number was recorded in the green book. The DVDs are...

- Alone But Not Alone
- The Theory of Everything
- Caged No More
- Courageous
- Blind Sided

Please check your DVDs at home.

SPORTS FOR SCHOOLS – CAN YOU HELP?

Paracombe Primary are asking if anyone has any spare Coles 'Sports for Schools' program cards. They would love to have them. We have helped them out before as they are only a small school with a limited number of people to collect the cards for them. If you have some, you can bring them into the office and we will get them to the school.
